Alice Templeton’s poetry collection The Infinite Field was published by Sixteen Rivers Press in April 2024. Her chapbook Archaeology won the 2008 New Women’s Voices Prize in Poetry from Finishing Line Press, and her poems have appeared in Asheville Poetry Review, Bellingham Review, Calyx, Nimrod, Poetry, and other publications. She is also the author of a scholarly book on Adrienne Rich’s poetics and articles on contemporary poetry and literary theory. Originally from Tennessee, Templeton lives in Point Richmond, California.

From Berkeley, CA, Kathryn Jordan’s poems have placed or won Honorable Mention in the Steve Kowitz, Muriel Craft Bailey, Connecticut River Poetry, and Patricia Dobler poetry prizes on multiple occasions. Winner of the San Miguel de Allende Poetry Prize, her work appears in The Sun, Comstock Review, New Ohio Review and Catamaran Literary Reader, among others. She loves to hike the East Bay Hills in search of the varied thrush that sings two notes on one breath.
